Sub: Working People's Convention against Labour Code
Saturday, 4 December 2021, 3pm
University Institute Hall, College Street, Kolkata

Sir/Madam

The Labour Codes have been passed in the Parliament.

In general, the pre-existing laws related to the rights of the workers and employees have been diluted and these Codes are against the interest of the Working People.

Work load has been increased.
Wages and salary decreased.
Duty hours will be more than 8 hours a day.
Hire and fire is legalized.
Safety at work place have been compromised.
Trade union rights are being curbed.
Right to equal pay for equal work has been rolled back.

In one stroke the condition of the workers and employees have gone back on paper, almost to "the age of working from sunrise to sunset".

Decades of fighting for rights of the working people have been nullified.

Under the above circumstances a WORKING PEOPLE'S CONVENTION is being organized to garner support and raise awareness in our State.

We request you to kindly send your representatives, including photographers, for covering the programme.

Date: Saturday, 4 December 2010, 3pm
Venue: University Institute Hall, College Square, Kolkata
Conveners:
• Workers' Initiative (Sramik Sangram Committee)
• Trade Union Solidarity Centre (TUSC)
• Nagarik Mancha

Thanking you on behalf of the conveners
